

The celebration of Constitution Day

Bhawanipur Anchalik College, under the banner of Electoral Literacy club, observed Constitution Day on 24th November, 2025, with solemnity and patriotic fervor. The program was organized in the Seminar Hall to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India and to remind students and the faculty the values enshrined in it.

The event began with a welcome address delivered by Dr. Banasmita Sarma, Assistant Professor, who highlighted the significance of the day and emphasized the relevance of constitutional principles in strengthening democratic values.

The central part of the programme was the Constitution Day Pledge, administered by Head of the Department, Ms Sanghamitra Dev Ray, Assistant Professor in which all teachers and students participated with sincerity and dedication. The pledge reaffirmed the commitment of the academic community towards upholding the ideals of the Constitution and performing their duties responsibly.

The brief yet meaningful programme concluded with reflections on the importance of constitutional awareness among the younger generation and the role of educational institutions in fostering responsible citizenship .

The celebration served as a reminder of our collective duty to protect and preserve the spirit of the Constitution and to contribute positively to Nation-building.

